

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JASON ARTHUR ALTHEIDE,

Case No.: 2:19-cv-02245-JAD-BNW

Petitioner

Order Denying Motions

V.

ECF Nos. 12, 13

STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

Respondents

This Court previously extended respondents' deadline to respond to Jason Arthur de's pro se 28 U.S.C. § 2254 petition for a writ of habeas corpus because respondents strated good cause for an extension.¹ Altheide has since filed 3 motions challenging that ely brief extension.² The Court has already denied the first motion.³ While the Court vledges Altheide's frustration that he did not have the opportunity to file an opposition to tion for extension of time before the Court granted it, such an opposition would not have ell-founded. Counsel for respondents has explained that teleworking in light of the D-19 pandemic has made it more difficult to efficiently review the underlying records in her's case and to draft and finalize the response to his petition, including finalizing the s.⁴ There is nothing to suggest that counsel for respondents is not proceeding in good
The deadline to file a response to this petition is currently June 15, 2020. Altheide's

¹ ECF No. 8.

² ECF Nos. 9, 12, 13.

23 | ³ ECF No. 10.

⁴ See ECF Nos. 7, 14.

1 second motion for default and motion to strike are denied. Filing further motions challenging
2 this reasonable extension only serves to further delay these proceedings.

3 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that petitioner's second motion for default [ECF No.
4 12] and motion to strike [ECF NO. 13] are DENIED.

5 Dated: June 8, 2020

6
7 Jennifer A. Dorsey
8 United States District Judge

10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23